

CANDIDATE BIOGRAPHIES 2022 Board of Directors Elections

Darryl Irvin: Darryl Irvin has been married to Diane Irvin for 35 years, and they have two children. He and his family have lived in Mainstreet for 27 years. He is a graduate of Morehouse College and presently works in commercial real estate management.

As a member of the board, Darryl has enjoyed making decisions that help move Mainstreet Community forward, especially in these uncertain times. He understands that working together will make the community a healthy, desired place to live.

Quincy Kelly: Quincy Kelly has been a Mainstreet homeowner since 2018. As a graduate of Georgia Institute of Technology, Quincy is the owner of 1 Accord Media, a multi-media production company based in Atlanta, GA. He is also the founder of Bridge Builders Initiatives Inc, a nonprofit organization which provides multimedia and mental health training to at-risk youth and young adults.

Quincy has a passion to serve the community and looks forward to opportunities for serving the residents of Mainstreet Community.

Janice Middleton: Janice Middleton is a retiree from the U.S. federal government after serving in various position with the Internal Revenue Service. She is a graduate of Temple University in Philadelphia, PA, with a major in Social Work.

Janice has been a resident of Mainstreet Community since 2005. Using her strengths in communication, organization, and perseverance, she hopes to serve the community as a board member in addressing challenges and issues that affect our property values and growth as a desirable place to call home.